

Company procedure on drugs and alcohol

- Employees are expressly forbidden to consume alcohol when at work or to bring it onto company premises without prior management permission. Any breach of this rule will result in disciplinary action being taken that is likely to result in summary dismissal.
- Employees who misuse drugs which have not been prescribed on medical grounds will, in the absence of mitigating circumstances, be deemed to be committing an act of gross misconduct and will thus render themselves subject to the company's disciplinary procedures. This also applies to employees believed to be buying or selling drugs or in possession of unlawful (i.e. un-prescribed) drugs.
- If an employee is known to be or strongly suspected of being intoxicated by alcohol or drugs during working hours, the Managing Director or nominated deputy should make arrangements for the employee to be escorted from the company premises immediately, pending further investigation.
- A Manager who feels an employee's unsatisfactory performance may be drug or alcohol related will at the first instance assess the ability of that person to work safely and act accordingly. The nature of work they do will be a significant factor in this assessment and may result in the person being removed from the workplace in the interests of safety.

Safeguards when dealing with drugs and alcohol problems

It should be made clear that the company is aware that a person suffering from these problems will be dealt with fairly.

The company realise that: -

- Absence for treatment and rehabilitation will be regarded as normal sickness
- Relapses may occur
- The policy will be monitored with consultation with employees and safety representatives

Drug misuse awareness

All Managers and staff will be made aware of the effects of alcohol and drug misuse. All employees should also be made aware of the company procedures and information through notices, posters and leaflets will be made available. All employees are encouraged not to cover up for employees with a drink or drug problem but to recognise that collusion represents a false sense of loyalty and will, in the longer term, damage those employees. Individual advice should be sought, confidentially through the management structure of the company, the policy details this procedure. External advice and information can be obtained through local organisations dealing with drugs and alcohol abuse.
